

What's the best way to sell your school? (It's confidential.)

If news gets out that you are selling your school, it can unsettle your parents, your pupils and – worst of all – your staff.

In turn, that can damage your business and cost you the sale.

As specialists selling nothing but educational businesses, STC are fully aware of these dangers and have devised ways of keeping the sale under wraps whilst achieving a successful conclusion and the best possible price.

If you are thinking of selling, we will be happy to visit your business without charge (anywhere in the UK or Europe) to discuss what you aim to achieve.

If you want to go ahead, we will use a combination of our personal knowledge, your brief and our interactive database to identify the most suitable buyers.

Then we will send you full details of these buyers and talk them through with you.

*Only when you've approved a buyer do we send them full details of your business.
We never send out details of your business at random to people who may be your competitors.*

Finally, we shall arrange discreet visits and negotiate expertly on your behalf.

Every year, using our careful methods, STC completes a wide range of educational business sales from around £300,000 to well over £10 million.

We know that, for many of our customers, the outcome may be crucial to the rest of their life. That's why we believe the extra effort we make is well worth the trouble.
